With an eye toward the future, when the military community is likely to include more same-sex couples, Crews' alliance has drawn some lines in the sand for chaplains from its affiliated denominations: no role in any ceremony for same-sex couples, no jointly presiding over religious services with gay or lesbian chaplains, no premarriage or marriage-strengthening counseling to same-sex couples. Alford is an associate professor of Church history and doctrine at Brigham Young University. The Substitute Mormon Chaplain suggested there were "no hard answers" to some potential dilemmas, such as if a conservative chaplain objected to participating at a marriage retreat that included a same-sex couple.
