A great emphasis is put on the provenance of the food. There's an excellent recipe for roast duck legs with a fool-proof way of serving them moist. The book celebrates British classics such as stews, pies and roasts and includes sections on fish, puddings and soups.

Otherwise he is neither self-indulgent nor guilty of padding; there are but When you follow that with the chapter on cakes and biscuits you know that you're in serious trouble! In the name of journalism and reviews, I am going to take myself off to one of the restaurants in January and review that. Leave a Reply
