Leadingfiguresintheheritagesocietiesandhomelandassociationsmayhav Kennan: Memoirs The founders of the " Wissenschaftsideologie " "ideology of science" believed in the educational potential of scientific research because they considered it ideally suited to educate the human mind in conformity with the unity of knowledge. Despite its limited institutional influence, however, German science and the German university played a central role in French debates on higher education in the second half of the 19th century.

AdolfArndtsgeistigerundpolitischerWeg".For instance, at the Max Planck Institute, Armin von Bogdandy now assesses the legitimacy of international institutions and courts via the scheme of international public authority, while Anne Peters looks at international law through the prism of global constitutionalism. Aber auch diese Routine des Wissenschaftsbetriebes hatte ihre Grenzen.
