The only thing I need to know is, how are relationships with Bolivia and Spain in

They inhabit small towns near San Javier in the department of Beni and produce agricultural products such as rice, corn, beans, manioc and bananas. The basic urban and rural domestic unit is the household: single-family, nuclear husband, wife, and children or extended. Etiquette Social interaction is governed by norms emphasizing respect and formality and marking age, gender, status, and class differences. They speak the Arawak language. The sense of nationhood and national identity is shared by all Bolivians but, given the historical disenfranchisement of the peasant majority, probably is of recent origin.
