She analyses the Foreign Office's treatment of claims from Islanders and explores why the islands' local governments declined to help former political prisoners fight for compensation. November French shelling of Haiphong: On 23

November the French cruiser Suffren bombarded the Vietnamese coastal city of Haiphong overnight, killing 6, Vietnamese people - 25 November From the outset of French colonialism in Vietnam, any form of political dissent was met with repression, books and newspapers deemed subversive were confiscated, anti-colonial political activists were sentenced to death or imprisoned on island fortresses, after the defeat of the Japanese in the Pacific War, the French ruling class was determined to re-establish its control over Vietnam and in the French government ordered the shelling of Haiphong, killing 6, Vietnamese. Quel avenir pour la France?
