Previous owner's name to "This book belongs to" page, some trivial wear to spine ends, with corners gently tapped though still sharp with some minor offset to pastedowns from binders glue; a bright, Near Fine copy. Furthermore, the ending is really syrupy and saccharine, even for an Oz book. Facebook Instagram Twitter. Still, fans will not want to miss the further adventures of Dorothy, the Wizard, and many other old characters, including the Cowardly Lion. Showing of 10 reviews. Another thing: what was the point of Toto losing his growl? The final battle with the bad guy was unusually trite, even for Baum yes, I know it's a children's book, but some of the books have had much better "good guys vanquish the bad guys" climaxes than this one.
