In addition, her approach, influenced by postmodern theory represents a growing critical self-reflexivity present in both fieldwork and writing by some ethnographers. Postcolonial Literature.

In the Beng case, for instance, some villages that border on Baule territory. In the case of this book as a whole and its cassette more attention to living traditions and active tradition bearers would have done it considerable good. In all likelihood, most Third World populations in Africa and elsewhere were far less isolated from one another before Europeans set foot in their lands than we in the West have tended to assume. In the case of Lotus Dickey, List overlooked a vital, dynamic repertoire for the sake of finding one more relic from the Victorian past. Matthew Engelke. Philosophy in Multiple Voices.
