Nagash is a special Lord-level Monster with a crazy statline. More healing, more buffing. The rest of your army will effectively be relegated to support. Myhairsucks. Their "more elite" version isn't actually that much different; mostly it's a choice of whether you want to spend Special or Rare points on. Their raw stats however put them in the position of not being durable enough to take much damage, while not being killy enough to be a dedicated hammer. But who came through with the tip?

AddmetotheweeklyNewsletter.Ijustfeltcoldandthirsty.The back story of this game is purely fictitious, and for the purpose of entertainment. But Tamurkhan's villain override only works on Infantry or Monstrous Infantry while Nagash is of the Monster category, and in addition it only works on things that kill him in Close Combat meaning that the player controlling Naggy would simply blast it with magic instead of charging into melee .
